World First in Music Education From Rock Musician

Author, musician, and concert promoter Ryan Kershaw has written the world's first book on 'guitar intuition' to teach guitarists how to successfully use their intuitive skills and feelings to become better players.

Kershaw was teaching karate classes at the age of 10 and has taught music professionally since he was 15. He incorporates the mental discipline of the martial arts with traditional guitar instruction.

Having overcome depression and found success as a self-managed artist and consultant, Kershaw can use the topic of music to talk about changing your mind to change your life and how we can be better teachers for those who learn from us.
